Burns Night at Craigston Castle, Turriff

Immerse yourself in history, good food, stars and planets

24th January 2025 06:30pm to 10:00pm

Celebrating the great Scottish poet and lyricist, Robert Burns, we'll walk you through the history of Craigston castle, enjoying a drink in the Drawing room and dinner in the Old Kitchen. Thanks to Simon White, star guide and Press & Journal 'Photographer of the Year 2023' you'll discover the dark sky of Aberdeenshire and more.

We welcome up to 11 participants, for booking or enquiries please email info@craigston.co.uk. Cost £98 pp

Program:

06:30pm arrival at Craigston, private family home of the Urquhart since 1607. Welcome drink in the Drawing room, with the opportunity to immerse yourself in history guided by your host through the main reception rooms of the castle.

07:00-07:30pm a talk with Simon in the Safari room exploring Aberdeenshire sky and more

07:45-08:30pm dinner in the Old Kitchen with local chef Fiona Trippet (2 courses menu)

08:30-09:30pm weather permitting a walk outside for stargazing
